re: U.S.A. v. Anthony Danna
07 Cr. 1159 [RMB]

Dear Judge Berman:

I am writing to Your Honor respectfully to request Your Honor's approval for my client, Mr. Danna, to be out of his parent's home, where he lives in Nanuet, New York, from 6:30 a.m. on Saturday morning, July 19, 2008 until 4:00 p.m. on Monday afternoon, July 21, 2008, to travel with his parents to Moodus, Connecticut for a family weekend, which his parents had planned and had made reservations. Mr. Danna's current bail conditions include a curfew enforced by electronic monitoring whereby Mr. Danna must be home between 4:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. Travel is restricted to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

Ms. Margaret A. Smusz, the Pretrial Services Officer who supervises Mr. Danna, consents to this request. I have provided the name, address, telephone number, and location to Ms. Smusz. She has asked me to inform Your Honor that [a] during this almost two and a half day period Mr. Danna will be off of electronic monitoring; [b] Mr. Danna has been in full compliance with the conditions of bail since his release in early June; and [c] he will be with and in the custody of his parents and not off somewhere on his own. I have telephoned and explained the request to David O'Neil, Esq., the Assistant United States Attorney who represents the government, and I have been waiting to learn his position on the request.

Thank you on behalf of my client, Mr. Danna, and his parents for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Application to travel granted
Respectfully yours, on consent.
Paul Madden
